

Lynda D. Franklin
Director of First Impressions

Lynda may be the first voice you hear when calling Allegiant Private Advisors. She joined the firm in 2008, and is responsible for scheduling appointments and overseeing the firm's calendars, as well as providing support for administration and client services. Lynda was born and raised in Sarasota but lived outside the state for many years before returning home in 1992. She has extensive administrative experience in the home building industry, workers' compensation/health insurance, and mergers and acquisitions. Her previous employers have included the Sarasota County Courthouse, The Florida Home Builders Association, Riscorp, and Sundial Partners, Inc.
